

1. Your Veteran's Name: _____
2. Branch of Service: _____ 3. Rank? _____
4. Theater of War your veteran participated in: (try to determine by listening to the audio file- be as specific as possible)
-

5. Find at least three published books about this campaign. Divide up the reading and number of reading logs. Complete at least six reading logs. Be sure to record all of the bibliographic data – (author's name-last name first. title of the book. place of publication: publishing company, copyright date. pages including preface.)
6. Find at least three electronic sources about this campaign. Complete six reading logs. Record the bibliographic data. Here is an example of how to cite an electronic source:

(Kenner, Charles, "John Hittson," The Handbook of Texas, University of Texas, Austin, last updated Mar. 8, 2005, accessed April 12, 2005, <<http://www.tsha.utexas.edu/handbook/online/articles/view/HH/fhi38.html>>)

Annette Gray, from the D.C. Research Center shared the following websites. You are also encouraged to find your own. Just verify their authenticity.

(The following information are some of the sources found on the Veterans History Project website, which I highly recommend for the amount of information available. "Especially for Students")

<http://www.loc.gov/vets/youth-resources.html#resources>

World War II

Web resources:

- World War II Timeline: <http://history.acusd.edu/gen/ww2Timeline/start.html>
- Voices of World War II: <http://www.umkc.edu/lib/spec-col/ww2/>
EyeWitness to World War Two: <http://www.eyewitnesstohistory.com/w2frm.htm>

7. THE ORAL HISTORY – Learn about this veteran's experiences by carefully hearing and reading his story.
8. THE FINAL PROJECT – Your group must produce:
- A) a thorough map or set of maps showing this veteran's experience in the context of the war
 - B) a typed paper (3-4 pgs.) on the theater of war and the vet's role – include proper citations & a bibliography page: (How do you cite an oral history?) see the example below:
(Willis P. Bradford, interview by Barbara Belt, August 19, 2005, interview 2005.213, transcript, Veterans History Project, Douglas County History Research Center, Douglas County Libraries, Castle Rock, CO.)
 - C) a visual poster showing the story
 - D) finally, a class presentation lasting from 15 – 20 minutes –